APPEAL NOT ALLOWED

Mrs. Holloway would question Judge Humphrey's Reasoning.

In the First Circuit Court this morning the objection and Wilder attempted to file an appeal from the order recently made by Judge Humphrey compelling Mrs. Irene H. Holloway to allow C. A. Brown to see his children, as previously ordered by Gear. The appeal was fully argued out last Saturday. Judge Humphrey entered the verdict as follows:

The within appeal is hereby dismissed for the reason that the First Judge was not called upon to make and did not make any order in said matter.
He was asked to require the guardian to show cause why Judge Gear's order had not been obeyed, and no sufficient cause being shown, the guardian was held to be in contempt. No punishment was inflicted, the First Judge merely holding that Judge Gear's order would be enforced, and further fixing the date of its operation. If the appeal were taken from the alleged order of the First Judge, Judge Gear's order, which was entered by consent of all the parties, would still be in force, and the court would enforce it by every proper means.

"A. S. HUMPHREYS,
"First Judge."

himi. The sugar was delivered into the ship in one hour and one minute by means of the sugar chute.

WILL EXHIBIT THE OWL.

The owl discovered behind Dr. Huddy's residence in Kalihi valley and taken by the doctor so that it now takes the place of a cat as far as mice are concerned. It is to be placed on exhibition in the Honolulu Drug Company's store, probably some time today, where, safely ensconced in a cage, he will take all stray mice that are brought him by admirers. The rice patches at Paia, Paia, have apparently escaped the ravages of these birds making a comfortable living off the field mice and rice birds.
